

Healthy Baby Network

Networking Session
August 30, 2018

Notes

Attendees: Krysta Baccari, Jordan Health Center; Precious Bedell, Women's Initiative Supporting Health; Gail Berkes, Rochester Rehabilitation; Kara Brown, Metro Council for Teen Potential; Andrea Carvalho, Program Assistant; Patricia Cathey, Common Ground Health Paula Clark, Action for a Better Community; Jessica Cranch, Arthur Dilbert, Hillside Children's Center; Tami Divers, Monroe County Department of Public Health; Sheila Forsett, MVP Health Care; LARC Initiative; Phyllis Jackson, Common Ground Health; Shalon James, Strong Recovery; Carolyn Keyser, YWCA; Esti Kilimnick, Brighton Food Cupboard; Bella Marcello, Monroe County Department of Public Health; Alice McAdam, Hillside Children's Center; Janella Mincey, Crisis Nursery; Chastity Phelps; Rochester Rehabilitation; Kathleen Mugnolo, Doula Cooperative of Rochester; Jennifer Quick, Metro Council for Teen Potential; Stacey Richards, Planned Parenthood of Central & Western New York; Erica Salters, Hillside Children's Center; Linda Schiess, Monroe County Department of Public Health; Megan Smith, Society for the Protection and Care of Children; Tori Toliver-Powers, Warrior Salute Veterans Services;

Healthy Baby Network Staff: Yolanda Sayres, Valerie Garrison

Discussion	Contact Information
Healthy Baby Network Please let HBN know if you know anyone who should be invited to our Networking Sessions or added to our online resource directory. Yolanda and the Healthy Baby Network Outreach Team conduct street outreach to find moms and dads who need to be connected to services and support. Their goal is to help moms have a healthy pregnancy and post-partum period. Join us on Wednesday, October 23 from 8-2:30 for our Annual Conference, From Womb to Womb: Ending Intergenerational Trauma. More at https://www.pnmc-hsr.org/news-	Yolanda Sayres Outreach Coordinator Healthy Baby Network yolanda@healthy-baby.net 585-546-4930 x203

and-events/from-womb-to-womb-ending-intergenerational-trauma/.
Strong Recovery Outpatient clinic for substance use treatment that offers additional assistance for all rehabilitation needs – finding employment, securing housing, etc.	Shalon James Rehabilitation Therapist Strong Recovery 585-275-5968 shalon_james@urmc.rochester.edu
Coalition to Prevent Lead Poisoning Provides education and outreach to prevent lead poisoning in children, particularly ages 1 & 2. Work with contractors, professionals, and community members.	Andrea Carvalho Program Assistant Coalition to Prevent Lead Poisoning 315-753-2735 acarvalho@causewave.org
YWCA YWCA's Parents as Teachers program works with single women age 25+. Pregnant women and those parenting children up to age two are eligible to enroll, and can stay until the program until the child turns 5. This intergenerational home visiting program works with both child and mom to assist with parent education, child development, and child-parent bonding.	Carolyn Keyser Director of Operational Excellence YWCA 585-368-2250 ckeyser@ywcarrowchester.org
Crisis Nursery CN now has two locations, and works with families in crisis who need emergency child care, help with homelessness, respite for families, or other assistance.	Janella Mincey Family Resource Navigator Crisis Nursery jmincey@centerforyouth.net 585-235-5750 24-hour help line: 585-271-7670 The Crisis Nursery 201 Genesee Park Blvd Rochester, NY 14619 Owen's House 464 Rosewood Terrace Rochester, NY 14609
LARC Initiative Provides LARC (Long-Acting Reversible Contraceptive) education for adults who talk to youth in any capacity to increase knowledge and awareness of these methods. Jessica conducts 1-hour education sessions that include resources for youth and where	Jessica Cranch Project Coordinator LARC Initiative 585-276-6234 jessica_cranch@urmc.rochester.edu

they can access free services. Able to provide lunch or dinner depending on the event and time.
MVP Enrolls individuals and families in qualified Medicaid and Child Health Plus insurance plans through NYS state of health. Back to School event at SWAN on Genesee St (giving away 3,000 book bags). Sat 9/1 from 10-2.	Sheila Forsett Outreach Representative MVP Health Care 585-967-2395 sforsett@mvphealthcare.com
Action for a Better Community Offers HS Equivalency courses for students 18+, job development, and career coaching. The Health Professionals Opportunity Grant program helps train people interested in health careers. ABC's new ERIC program partners with Lifetime Assistance to provide paid training for individuals with disabilities. Retention efforts include a training completion bonus. Participants must have a HS degree or equivalent, and valid driver's license. ABC is moving to 400 West Ave on 9/1/18.	Paula Clark Career Counselor Family Self-Sufficiency Program Action for a Better Community pclark@abcinfo.org 585-325-5116 x3412
Rochester Rehabilitation Strengthening Working Families Initiative (SWFI) Provides daycare support services for anyone attending training in healthcare, manufacturing, or IT fields. Can also provide support for transportation.	Gail Berkes SWFI Rochester Rehabilitation 585-263-2690 x2123 gberkes@rochesterrehab.org Dasia Jackson Benefit Resource Navigator 585-263-2690 x2113 djackson@rochesterrehab.org Sarah Thomas Benefit Resource Navigator 585-263-2690 x2124 stthomas@rochesterrehab.org
Metro Council for Teen Potential Offers several educational workshops for groups of Rochester youth, including: Project AIM - workshop series helps youth plan their futures	Jennifer Quick and Kara Brown Health Educators Metro Council for Teen Potential jquick@badenstreet.org kbrown@badenstreet.org 585-445-6771

Be Proud, Be Responsible – workshop series helps youth identify goals, improve communication skills, and increase self-awareness. Includes reproductive health information to prevent STIs, HIV and unplanned pregnancies. Family Talk – improves communication between youth and parents on difficult topics. MCTP is also looking for Youth Leaders ages 14-17 to develop healthy social networking messages and host a radio broadcasting show (2 hours/week through school year) – contact Jennifer.
Monroe County Department of Public Health – Healthy Neighborhoods Program Free home safety program offers home visit to assess home safety and provide education. CHWs make referrals to help alleviate any problems found, and provide family with a home safety kit with a fire extinguisher, CO and smoke alarms, cleaning supplies and information. Serves residents of zip codes 14605, 14608, 14609, 14611, and 14621.	Tami Divers Community Health Worker Healthy Neighborhoods Program tdivers@monroecounty.gov 753-5073 Bella Marcello Community Health Worker Healthy Neighborhoods Program gabriellemarcello@monroecounty.gov 753-5070
Monroe County Childhood Lead Poisoning Prevention Program Nurse oversees blood lead test lab work, manages medical case management for children with elevated blood lead levels, and conducts outreach and education – including education of medical providers about the importance of testing all children at age 1 and again at age 2.	Linda Schiess Nurse Monroe County Childhood Lead Poisoning Prevention Program 753-5077 lindaschiess@monroecounty.gov
WISH (Women’s Initiative Supporting Health) and Women on the Road to Health Women recently released from incarceration partner with a CHW and their doctor for healthcare, mental health services and case management to address barriers. Located at 2613 W Henrietta Rd.	Precious Bedell Community Health Worker Women’s Initiative Supporting Health 585-353-9490 precious_bedell@urmc.rochester.edu Founder and Manager Turning Points Resource Center 585-328-0856

Precious also provides Community Health Worker training in partnership with ABC's HPOG and ERIC programs – notes HPOG grant is ending in November, and they are seeking job placements for current trainees. Turning Points Resource Center Received a new grant from University of Rochester to support visitations in prison, conduct focus groups, and provide health system navigation assistance.	Preciousbedell13@gmail.com
Planned Parenthood, Regional Family Planning Grant Offers Family Planning Benefit and Pregnancy Prevention programs to anyone able to father or bear children. Planned Parenthood also provides STI/HIV testing, assistance with birth control including LARC education, transportation to and from appointments, and more. PP of Western and Central New York has multiple locations throughout Monroe County, and requires no paperwork necessary for screening. Patients can apply for additional coverage beyond basic screening.	Stacey Richards Family Planning Coordinator Planned Parenthood 585-546-2771 x266 Stacey.richards@ppcwny.org
Brighton Food Cupboard Delivers four-day food packages to families in need in zip codes 14618, 14620, 14607, and 14610 (must have a working phone). Case Workers with clients in any zip code can make an appointment to pick up food for their clients on Mondays. BFC also provide case management and counseling services for people of all ages, and the Papers and Pencils program provides school supplies for teachers. The BFC clothing closet provides clothing for families, and can deliver clothing with food packages.	Esti Kilimnick Case Manager Brighton Food Cupboard 585-736-4526 ekilimnick@jfsrochester.org
Society for the Protection and Care of Children Megan serves Children age 0-6 who have experienced trauma and/or are exhibiting symptoms through in-home or in-community long-term therapy with the family and child	Megan Smith Early Childhood Therapist Society for the Protection and Care of Children (SPCC) msmith@spcc-roch.org 585-325-6101 x216

together. There is currently a waitlist, but hope it will clear soon. SPCC is offering a 10-week Infant Mental Health training program this fall and winter. Recommended for anyone whose job involves direct or indirect interaction with young children. Those interested may join the Contact List.
Warrior Salute Veteran Services Free services for all veterans at any discharge level and their families, including transitional housing in Penfield (for men only), case management, transportation to work and appointments, and an outpatient clinic that families can use for mental health counseling (PTSD, traumatic brain injury, military sexual trauma, and homelessness).	Tori Toliver-Powers Outreach Coordinator Warrior Salute Veterans Services 585-364-3171 Cell: 585-472-6269 tori.toliverpowers@warriorsalute.com
Jordan Health Center – Health Education Krysta works with adolescents ages 12-25 to provide counseling and services re: LARC, birth control, STI/HIV testing, pregnancy testing, primary care, and vaccines for children. Wednesdays and Fridays from 1-5 offers pregnancy options counseling and birth control options counseling. Facilitated enrollers on site for clients in need of insurance. Also a Family Planning Benefit Program site. Patients at adolescent sites can access any other Jordan site (urgent care, dental, vision, etc). Community Health Education addresses reproductive health – birth control, risk behaviors, STIs, healthy relationships.	Krysta Baccari Health Educator and Prevention Counselor Jordan Health Center kbaccari@jordanhealth.org
Rochester Rehabilitation – Resource and Public Benefit Connection Program Funded by United Way, free service links individuals ages 18+ to resources, assists with application processes (SSD, DHS, etc), provides mental health and Health Homes referrals, connects with food and clothing cupboards, and provides benefit advisement.	Chastity Phelps Rochester Rehabilitation Resource and Public Benefit Connection Program cphelps@rochesterrehab.org 473-2052 x2103
Hillside Children’s Center	Alice McAdam Program Manager

Parents as Teachers Home visiting education for families with children ages 5 and under, and will work with parent to start early learning. Fatherhood Program New groups beginning on 9/10 at 2 locations. Contact Arthur to enroll: Southwest Family Resource Center Unity St Mary's, 89 Genesee St Mondays, 5:30-7:30pm Peter Castle Family Resource Center 555 Ave. D Thursdays, 5:30-7:30pm Parents as Advocates This 36-topic curriculum for families with children ages 5-12 covers bullying, peer pressure, sexuality, and other topics. Helps parent navigate school world and advocate for their child.	Hillside Children's Center 585-436-0370 x308 amcadam@hillside.com Arthur Dilbert Parent Educator, Fatherhood Coordinator Hillside Children's Center Cell: 585-315-6073 adilbert@hillside.com Erica Salters Outreach Worker Hillside Children's Center esalters@hillside.com
Doula Cooperative of Rochester Network of doulas dedicated to improving birth outcomes, and supporting women and families through pregnancy, birth and postpartum in the Rochester area. Want to be a resource and seek resources in the community for their clients.	Kathleen Mugnolo Doula Cooperative of Rochester http://www.doulacooperative.com 585-234-0164 kathleenamugnolo@gmail.com
Common Ground Health CGH brings community partners together to address disparities - "the region's roundtable for health." Uses data to advocate for needed services, and houses many programs including HealthiKids - safe play and services for children; high blood pressure collaborative - work with churches and other community places to promote health; and partnerships with many different health coalitions in the community. Mr. Wade Norwood is now CEO; working to expand outreach.	Phyllis Jackson Community Wellness Project Manager Common Ground Health phyllis.jackson@commongroundhealth.org 585-224-3153 Patricia Cathey Community Wellness Project Coordinator Common Ground Health patricia.cathey@commongroundhealth.org

The Networking Session notes can be found on our agency website at www.healthy-baby.net under "News & Events."